

Fire Prevention Branch

The Fire Prevention Branch provides a wide variety of public services for the purpose of a safe environment and quality of life. Subject matter experts evaluating construction projects on compliance with the National Fire Code, host nation and other applicable technical standards, providing technical solutions, and inspecting Government Facilities.

Public Education classes include Fire Prevention for tenant units, dependents, child development centers and schools. A special training is provided for all appointed Building Managers to ensure they are given the right tools for their additional important duty in matters of Fire Prevention.