

Fire Protection Branch

The Fire Protection Branch includes not only structural and aircraft fire fighting but also Emergency Medical Services by trained Intermediate-Emergency Medical Technicians. The tasks and duties of a Fire Department have changed and widened within the last few years dramatically the biggest changes have occurred in the response and capability for Hazardous Material Incidents, Technical Rescue as well as WMD and CBRNE First Responses.