

EEO/POSH Training for FY12

Department of the Army (DA) policy states that EEO training is a biennial training (every other year) for all Army civilian employees. All new employees entering Department of the Army and newly promoted employees to a supervisory position must receive this training within 90 days after assuming the supervisory position or arriving to the first duty station.

Military leaders and Local National who supervises Army civilian employees are also required to attend this training.

The guidance from the Baumholder Garrison Command is that all employees assigned to the garrison will attend this training annually . The classroom training will be conducted every other year and the online training version the alternating year.

Contact the USAG Baumholder EEO Office at 485-7118 or email michael.wardmaxwell@eur.army.mil with your full names, grade, phone number and if you are a supervisor or not, to reserve your slot for one of the following sessions:
